People helped by United Way of Berks County in 2019

The numbers represent residents served in each school district.

These totals are reported to United Way of Berks County by our agency/community partners and reflect our total investment in 2019 funded programs, initiatives and grants. It is possible that one person using multiple services may be reported as a beneficiary more than once.

The official registration and financial information of The United Way of Berks County may be obtained from the Pennsylvania Department of State by calling toll free, within Pennsylvania, 800-732-0999. Registration does not imply endorsement. If designating your gift outside of the community an administrative processing and uncollectable fee will be charged. If you have questions regarding this form please contact the United Way of Berks County, P. O. Box 702, Reading, Pennsylvania 19603-0702, or call 610-685-4555. Contributions support health and human service needs in the year 2021.

United Way did not provide any goods or services in return for this contribution unless you entered the incentive programs. If you choose to participate in the United Way incentive programs your contribution may be tax deductible to the extent it exceeds the minimum giving levels for eligibility. Donors who do not want to participate in the incentive programs should not complete the raffle entry form; or contact your campaign representative, as applicable. For actual tax implications please consult your tax advisor. United Way will send you a charitable contribution receipt for all donations of $250 or more. Please keep a copy of this form for tax purposes.
